

MEET OKLAHOMA.

Her name is Becky Drake. Married, a son away in college. Lives on a 2,000 acre ranch; raises wheat, corn, cattle. Charter member of the local FFA. Earned a degree in business. Loves to cook and travel. Went to work for a manufacturer of home improvement products in 1976. Came up through the ranks: Secretary, Office Manager, local Personnel Manager. Now, she is the Human Resources Manager responsible for employment policies, retirement benefits and healthcare plans for all the firm's national operations.

Becky is just one part of Oklahoma's most treasured resource: our people. Those men and women that make our state great. Individuals that exemplify our native strengths of tenacity, integrity, and ingenuity.

Like other economic development organizations in Oklahoma, we are tasked with recruiting new industries to our state. It's a complex and difficult job trying to convince a business to locate their operations here. But, it becomes a whole lot easier when they meet someone like Becky.
